

Summit Consultancy Services (UK)

In partnership with

Global Environmental Managers Ltd
Complete QHSE Solutions

Managing Safely in the Maritime Industry

Course accredited by IOSH

Summit Consultancy Services (UK)

Bradwell Road,
New Bradwell,
Milton Keynes, MK13 0EJ
United Kingdom.

Tel: +44(0)1908311322, 447741359801

Fax: +44(0)2476012688

Email: info@summitschool.org.uk

Overview

The Managing Safely in the Maritime Industry course is designed to equip delegates with the skills and knowledge to manage health, safety and environment efficiently and effectively within the maritime or similar industry. The course is designed to use a rich variety of case studies, exercises, videos and tutorials to support an engaging and interactive learning in real life situations. This course is accredited by the Institution of Occupational Safety & Health (IOSH), one of Europe's leading health and safety awarding bodies.

Delegate Prerequisite

None

Duration

5 days

Who Should Attend?

Persons working within the maritime industry, who have responsibility to manage health, safety and environment. It also suit individuals working at any level in similar environment that require safety. These include engineers, technicians, supervisors, project managers, admin personnel, etc.

Course Content

Module 1 - Introduction to Course

- ✚ Welcome and introduction
- ✚ Emergency/domestic arrangement
- ✚ Course overview
- ✚ Assessment overview
- ✚ Reasons for managing health and safety

Module 2 - Health Safety and Environment Regulations

- ✚ General regulations
- ✚ Offshore Industry specific regulations (Safety Case and related regulations)

Module 3 - HSE Management Systems

Module 4 - Risk Management and Control

Module 5- Accident Investigation & reporting / Lessons from offshore Industry accidents

Module 6 - Specialised Hazards/Safe Systems of Work

- ✚ Noise and vibration
- ✚ Radiation and radioactive sources
- ✚ Fire safety and explosive atmosphere
- ✚ Permit to work systems
- ✚ Chemical and biological agents
- ✚ Lockout/Tagout
- ✚ Lone working
- ✚ Electrical safety
- ✚ Confined space
- ✚ Stress
- ✚ Process safety and loss prevention

Module 7- Managing in Contract Environment, Performance Management , Monitoring and Competence Assurance

Module 8 - Environment & Waste Management

- ✚ Element of ISO14001
- ✚ Pollution prevention and control
- ✚ Waste minimisation

Course Assessment

Achievement of the objectives of the Managing Safely IOSH course will be assessed by:

- An objective (short answer) test
- A practical assessment in the workplace

IOSH Managing Safely in the Maritime Industry certificates are issued by the examining body IOSH approximately 6 weeks after the last day of the course ending including exams. Also a Certificate of Attendance is issued by the training provider.

Course Fees

£1,000 per delegate (fees include course fees, course material, refreshments & lunch).

Course Dates

Dates are available in 9-13 May, 8-12 August, 7-11 November and 5-9 December 2016.

Course Venue

Milton Keynes or London.

In-House Training at Client's Facility also available